Dr. Celyn Gurden-Williams

Life on the Llanover Estate

(In English)

Dr Gurden-Williams wrote her PhD on Lady Llanover and her contribution to Welsh culture. She works as Skills Development Officer at Beamish Museum in County Durham.

Professor David Thorne

Welsh Place Names Society

(In Welsh with simultaneous translation)

Too often ancient Welsh place names are changed mindlessly or are replaced by English destroying the rich history associated with the name. The Welsh Place Names Society have recently received a grant to collect, record on digital mapping and protect a national archive under a pioneering project called "Gwarchod". Hear how we can all contribute.

Mick Petts

Coracle Maker

(in English)

Come and learn how coracle making has evolved down through the centuries. Mick Petts (who taught Matt Baker to build his boat on the BBC's "Countryfile") will be giving an illustrated talk on the history of this iconic Welsh craft.

2pm - 4pm

Conducted tour of the Llanover Estate by Jeff Davies finishing with a visit to Llanover Church and a musical finale.

Cost £12 (members £10) to include lunchtime sandwiches.

Tea and Coffee throughout the day.
